This might seem to almost steer the price. But when you consider the Hollywood content on bids, it is inexcuse either. It is actually a great value for money options if you like to watch American TV shows and Hollywood movies. The vice versa is not true i.e. you can't switch from Premium to vip. Which is best – Disney + Hotstar VIP vs Disney + Hotstar Premium? There is no right or wrong response to this. If you are looking to watch only Sports Content, then by all means, go for Hotstar VIP. All the live content including Cricket, Football, Formula 1, Tennis, etc. is available on the VIP plan. But if you're even slightly interested in watching American television shows and Hollywood movies, Hotstar Premium is a way to go. When you consider that Hotstar is currently owned by Disney, you can expect a lot of new U.S. content being added to the future. Another consideration is that Hotstar Premium allows you to connect and view your account content on upto 2 devices at the same time (which is not offered in Hotstar VIP). So this is the beneficiary for who is sharing the account among family members. However, this could not be confirmed. Hotstar also has a tie-up with HBO, so you get access to exclusive HBO content as well on the Premium Plan. But if Indian content is all you want, VIP is the right way to go. If you're not really sure, you can always start with VIP. You can upgrade to Hotstar Premium anytime during your subscription. For that, you just need to pay the difference amount. The final thoughts going for Premium or VIP's Plan are more a matter of choice of content. The Premium plan is simply the VIP content + All international content (Hollywood Movies + American TV shows). Hotstar's Premium plan to match Amazon Prime in 999/year offers all the Hotstar content. On the other hand, go for VIP if you intend to use Hotstar only for its sports content and want to save on money. Specifically, if you're not a big fan of international movies and television shows, VIP subscription makes sense. Those who just started on Hotstar may even consider starting with VIP prior to alloys in the Premium Plan. If you don't mind spending the money, then simply go with the Hotstar Premium plan that offers you with all the content on Hotstar. Hotstar Premium is a great value for money subscription, especially if you're using it well. One of the ways to do this is to start watching Hotstar on television.
